The results of observations at the Alipore Observatory are not rigorously comparable with the registers of past years (at the Park Street Observatory). The barometer is about 8 feet higher at Alipore, and, other things being equal, reads therefore .003 lower. The diurnal range of temperature is also greater at Alipore, and the mean temperature apparently about 1.0° lower; and finally, the thermometer which furnished the record of temperature at the Surveyor-General's Office during 20 years and upwards is found to read 0.6 higher than the Kew standard thermometer, which is the standard of reference at the present Observatory.

* Means of 6 days.
Explanation.—Summary.—The normal means of air pressure and temperature are the arithmetical average or means of the reading during the same period for the last 10 years. The humidity of the atmosphere is expressed as percentage, saturated air being presented by 100. A clear sky is denoted by 0 and an overcast sky by 10. The number in the district sending in returns divided by the number of stations. A rainy day is one on which at least hundredth of an inch fell.

for the week ending Friday, the 11th of April 1890.

CALCUTTA, the 15th April 1890.

SUMMARY OF THE METEOROLOGICAL AND RAINFALL OBSERVATIONS
TAKEN IN BENGAL FOR THE WEEK ENDING FRIDAY, THE 11TH
OF APRIL 1890.

THE week commenced with high pressure, a generally rising temperature, and the usual wind circulation at this season of the year; that is, with westerly winds in Behar and south or south-westerly winds over the rest of the area except in the eastern part of North Bengal, where directions are east or north-east. Temperature was above the normal except in Orissa, Behar, and part of East Bengal, and excess was large in Chutia Nagpur, parts of South-West Bengal and North Bengal. Pressure continued to rise for the first two or three days, and over the whole of the northern half of the province was from 0.15 inch to 0.2 inch above the normal, the excess diminishing to about a tenth of an inch in South-West Bengal and Orissa. In the early part of the week a low-pressure area formed to the west of Behar, and easterly winds blew at all stations in North Bengal and Behar from Sunday the 6th till nearly the end of the week. Weather became unsettled over the greater part of the province, and though the effects were noticeable in the cloudy weather, very little rain fell. A few showers fell in East and South-West Bengal during the first half of the week, but none in Orissa or Behar. The low-pressure area moved slowly to the east, and pressure began to fall on Tuesday, the 8th, continuing rapidly on the 9th, and more slowly till the end of the week. On Wednesday, the 9th, there was a distinct depression over part of Behar and North Bengal with cyclonic circulation, westerly winds having recommenced at the western stations of Behar. Frequent showers fell in North Bengal on the two last days of the week, especially in Cooch Behar, Julpigoree, and the Darjeeling Hill district. Though pressure continued to fall on Thursday and Friday, the depression gradually filled up and moved slowly to the east, the most rapid fall on Friday being in the east of North Bengal. Moderately strong winds blew throughout the week in the north-west corner of the Bay and in South-West Bengal and Chutia Nagpur, while temperature falling in the lower districts rose in the north of the province during the first half of the week, and fell in North and East Bengal during the latter half as the rainfall area extended over these parts.

Pressure. As stated above, was from five-hundredths to two-tenths of an inch above the normal from the 5th to the 8th, after which the depression, moving gradually eastward, the excess diminished considerably, and by the end of the week there was a general small defect of about two-hundredths of an inch. The largest falls were on Wednesday the 9th and Friday the 11th, amounting on the former date to a tenth of an inch over the northern half of Bengal, and diminishing to about a twentieth of an inch in Orissa and East Bengal; on the 11th it was a tenth of an inch in North Bengal and about a twentieth elsewhere. The means for the week are all considerably above the normal, excess ranging from a twentieth of an inch in Chutia Nagpur to a tenth of an inch in North Bengal and North Behar.

Temperature. Has changed rather irregularly and rapidly, the change, as shown in the table below, being largest in the day temperatures. For some time both night and day temperatures have been considerably above the normal, but this week maximum temperatures are either below the normal or slightly in excess, while rather large excess continues at night, especially in the northern districts. At Cuttack and Calcutta there has been defect, during the day, of about 3°, while at Gya, Purneah, Hazaribagh, and Darjeeling minimum temperature has been above the normal by amounts ranging from 3.5° to 6.4°. The means for the larger divisions are slightly below the normal in Orissa and East Bengal, and above elsewhere, the largest difference being 2.5° in Chutia Nagpur.

The actual temperatures during the week, the range from day to night, and their variation from the normals are seen in the following table, where the average maximum, minimum and mean temperatures at nine typical stations in different districts in the province are given together with their normal values:—

Table showing the excess or defect of the actual mean temperature from the normal for the week ending 11th April 1890.

Rainfall—Has been almost entirely confined to North, East and South-West Bengal. Scattered showers fell in South-West Bengal during the early part of the week, in East Bengal throughout the week, especially on Sunday and Thursday, and in Cooch-Bihar, Julpigoree, and the Darjeeling Hills there were some heavy falls on the last three days. The heaviest were 6 inches at Cooch Behar, 4·4 inches at Buxa, and 3·6 inches at Alipore Dooar. Elsewhere falls were generally under one inch. The average for North Bengal is 0·8 inch, East Bengal 0·5 inch, and South-West Bengal 0·18 inch, the first being half an inch in excess of the normal. Practically no rain fell in the other districts.

The following table gives the summary of the temperature and rainfall data of each of the seven meteorological divisions of the province for the week ending Friday, the 11th of April 1890 :—

The mean pressure, temperature, &c., are deduced from the traces of the Barograph and Thermograph, and from observations made at 6h., 10h., 16h. and 22h.

The maximum and minimum temperatures are obtained from self-registering thermometers. All the thermometers are verified, and the readings have been corrected to a standard constructed and verified at the Kew Observatory. They are exposed under a thatched shed open at the sides, and are suspended four feet above the ground.

The barometer readings are corrected approximately to those of the standard, Newman's No. 86, formerly at the Surveyor-General's Office.

* The hygrometric elements are obtained from Tables III, IV, and V of the official tables computed in the Meteorological Office, and based on Regnault's modifications of August's formula.

The directions and the movement of the wind are taken from the trace of a Beckley's anemograph.

The mouth of the rain-gauge is one foot above the ground.

Such inspection shall have no reference to religious instruction, but only to secular education.

5. Every such school shall submit punctually and in the prescribed forms such annual and periodical returns as may be called for by the Department or by the Board.

* Section 63 of the Local Self-Government Act—

7. No change of system in the administration or control of grant-in-aid and primary schools or in the conversion of middle vernacular into middle English schools, shall be introduced by a District Board without the sanction of Government. Application for such sanction shall be forwarded to the Director of Public Instruction through the Inspector, who shall record his opinion on the proposal.

SECTION II.—(A). BOARD SCHOOLS.

Middle and Primary Schools directly managed and maintained by a Board.

9. Subject to the general control of the Department, the Board shall have with regard to these schools the following powers in addition to those conferred on it by section 62* of the Act—

- (2) Of transferring or closing existing schools.
- (3) Of fixing the class and the standard of instruction of every such school; the selection to be made from classes and standards recognised by the Department.

NOTE.—The conversion of a vernacular into an English school, or the opening of an English school with funds saved by the closing of one or more vernacular schools elsewhere, will require the sanction of the Department.

- (4) Of fixing, subject to such limitations as may be from time to time prescribed by the Department, the rate of monthly, admission, and re-admission fees to be paid by pupils in every such school.

10. The Board shall notify to the Inspector all schools opened or closed, and all appointments of teachers on Rs 10 and upwards made by it, stating in each case the educational qualifications of the persons appointed.

11. The list of holidays and vacations to be observed in Board schools shall be fixed annually by the Board, subject ordinarily to the limit of 60 days in the year, exclusive of Sundays. A copy of such list shall be forwarded to the Deputy Inspector at the beginning of each year.

Schools under private management receiving grants from a Board.

General Rules.

14. Whenever funds shall have been made over to a District Board for the benefit of grant-in-aid schools within the district, the District Board shall be charged with and be responsible for the distribution of such funds in accordance with the following rules.

15. Grants shall not be made under these rules to high schools, to girls' schools, or (except with the special sanction of the Department) to primary schools.

NOTE.—If an aided middle school under the control of a District Board be converted, with the consent of the Board, into a high school, the Board may, notwithstanding this rule, continue to aid such school until it shall receive a grant from the Department.

* Powers conferred on the Boards by section 62 of the Act—

- (1) The construction and repair of buildings;
- (2) the appointment of all masters and assistant masters; and
- (3) the payment of the salaries of such masters and assistant masters.

16. Applications for grants-in-aid shall be made directly to the Board. Before disposing of any such application, the Board shall consult the Inspector, whose opinion in writing shall be recorded on the application. Should the applicant be dissatisfied with the Board's order, he may appeal to the Inspector. Should the Inspector be dissatisfied with the Board's order, he may refer the matter to the Commissioner for decision.

17. The promoters or managers of any institution by whom application for a grant is made shall appoint a Secretary to conduct their correspondence with the Board.

18. The Board shall not make a grant to any school, other than training schools, night-schools for adults, technical schools, and schools for aborigines and low castes, that does not require a monthly fee, however small, from all its scholars, except such as may be exempted in accordance with a scale to be approved by the Director of Public Instruction. Provided that this rule shall not apply to such scholarship-holders as are entitled to free tuition in accordance with the rules prescribed by Government.

19. Grants-in-aid shall be given on the principle of strict religious neutrality, and no preference shall be shown to any school on the ground that any particular religious doctrines are taught or not taught therein.

20. Should the Inspector discover that the instruction or discipline in any school aided by the Board is not efficient, or that the accounts are not properly kept, or that any of the conditions on which the grant was made are not observed, or should he be in any other way dissatisfied with the management of the school, he shall report the matter to the Board, which shall then take such action as may be necessary.

21. Should the Board on such reference omit to take the necessary action, the Inspector may move the Commissioner to take action under section 125 of the Act. If the Commissioner declines to take action, the Inspector may refer the matter for the orders of Government through the Director of Public Instruction.

22. The managers of schools receiving grants-in-aid from the Board shall be responsible for the due expenditure of the school funds in accordance with the conditions of the grant.

23. The Board shall interfere as little as possible with the local management of a school receiving a grant-in-aid. If the conditions of the grant are not fulfilled, the grant may be reduced or withdrawn by the Board.

24. The Board shall notify to the Inspector all grants suspended, or withdrawn, or reduced, or increased, and all schools opened or closed. It shall be competent to the Inspector to make recommendations in such matters to the Board, and the Board shall take such recommendations into consideration.

25. Grants shall in no case exceed in amount the sums to be expended from private sources, except in special cases under special orders of Government.

Monthly Grants.

31. The Board may, for reasonable cause to be duly recorded, either sanction the grant in whole or in part, or refuse it altogether. The Board shall send a copy of its order to the Inspector, and another to the applicant.

32. The sanction to a grant shall be conveyed in Form B, appended to these rules, and on the conditions therein stated.

33. When a grant is sanctioned, the managers shall forward to the Board an agreement on stamped paper to the effect that they will conduct the school in accordance with the conditions of the grant.

Notice of any leave given by the managers to the teachers shall be forwarded to the Board with the next grant-in-aid bill; and the Board may make any objection to the leave. 39. Except in the case provided in the foregoing rule, no grant shall be made in consideration of former expenditure on school buildings.

40. No building grant shall be sanctioned unless the site, plans, estimates, specifications, title and trust-deeds are approved by the Inspector.

41. The trust-deed shall declare the building to be granted in trust for school purposes only. It shall also provide for the legal ownership of the premises, for the proper maintenance of the building, and for the inspection and management of the school.

[NOTE.—This rule does not preclude the managers from using the building for other purposes when not required for the purposes of the school.]

42. No grant shall be finally sanctioned until a certificate is received from the managers, setting forth that the funds in their hands will, when added to the grant, be sufficient to meet all claims and to close the account.

43. Advances shall be made from time to time out of the sanctioned grant, on receipt of a report from the Board's Engineer that the work is proceeding satisfactorily.

44. The grant shall not be paid in full until—

- (1) a report is received from the Board's Engineer that the building is satisfactorily completed;
- (2) the trust-deed is duly registered and a copy lodged with the Board.

45. If the total amount of the building grant does not exceed Rs. 500, and the building is, in the opinion of the Inspector, of such a description that it is not worth while requiring the execution of a trust-deed, the Board shall accept from the managers a written agreement on stamped paper engaging to maintain the building in proper repair for ten years.

46. Loans may also be made to managers of schools for the erection of school buildings. The amount of such loans shall generally be limited to the amount of any grant claimable under rules 26 and 27. The building shall be mortgaged to the Board as a guarantee for the repayment of the loan, and a term shall be fixed within which the loan is to be repaid. Interest at a rate not exceeding 4 per cent may, if necessary, be charged.

No addition shall be made to the list of stipendiary schools without the sanction of the Director of Public Instruction.

The appointment, punishment, transfer, or removal of chief gurus and inspecting pandits shall rest with the Board.

86. The primary duties of Sub-Inspectors shall be to inspect schools; and no other duties shall be laid upon them by the Board without the sanction of Government. Application for such sanction shall be forwarded to the Director of Public Instruction through the Inspector.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

- A Dictionary of the Economic Products of India. By DR. GEO. WATT, C.I.E.,
Reporter on Economic Products.

Published under the authority of the Government of India in the Revenue and Agricultural Department.

The first two volumes of this work are now ready for issue, and intending subscribers are invited to register their names with the Superintendent of Government Printing, Calcutta.

The Dictionary is intended to deal with the products of India—animal, vegetable, and mineral; each product being treated after a uniform plan, the paragraphs of which give the scientific, vernacular, and European names; habitat or source; history; properties and uses, both chemical and industrial; trade statistics; markets, &c. The work is arranged alphabetically according to scientific nomenclature, but commercial and important vernacular names are also given as cross references, so that little difficulty need be experienced in finding the account of a product even when its scientific name is unknown to the reader.

An important feature of the Dictionary consists in the fact that derived information is in every instance given under quotation marks, and with a reference to the original publication. Numerous contributions have, however, furnished the results of new discoveries, and confirmed the vernacular names; so that the Dictionary is not only a complete compilation of published information, but has been brought abreast of the most recent inventions and discoveries.

Volume I contains the letters A and B, and consists of 559 royal pages; Volume II embraces the letter C in 689 pages; Volume III is in course of preparation, and will contain the letters D, E, F, and G. The whole work will, it is expected, be completed in six volumes by 1891; but a seventh volume may also be issued consisting of an index to all the vernacular and other names contained in the Dictionary; and this as a work of reference, it is hoped, may prove of considerable value.

The price to subscribers will be in India Rs. 30 and in England 3 guineas, payable in advance, for the complete set. An extra charge for packing and postage will be made for the set—in India, at 8 annas per volume, and for England at 2 rupees 6 annas per volume.

For copies bound in half calf or half morocco, Rs. 6 and 8 shillings respectively will be charged extra for the whole sets.

*.No copies will be issued to non-subscribers till the work is complete, and no single volume will be sold separately. The price to non-subscribers will be Rs. 45 in India, and 3 guineas in England, exclusive of packing and postage.

The above figures show that the work of the Chemical Examiner is increasing in every direction. Since 1880-81 there has been an increase of 1,507 in analyses, or an increase of over 100 per cent. In addition to the analyses above enumerated, nine opinions on technical questions were submitted during the year under report, and 31 applications for leave to file specifications for patent rights were reported on for the Government of India. Some work was also done for the Department of the Collector of Customs, Calcutta, in connection with the introduction of the new Excise rules for determining the real alcoholic strength of imported spirits. Two hundred and nine human viscera were examined for poison, as against 199 in 1888. Poison was detected in 48·3 per cent. of these cases, as against 44·2 in the previous year. In 50 cases opium was found, and in 29 cases arsenic, and there were 22 cases in which traces of other poisons were discovered. In commenting on the large number of cases in which the two first-named poisons are found, Dr. Warden remarks: "These figures very clearly demonstrate that opium and arsenic, the two most commonly known poisonous drugs, are still the favourite agents for suicidal and homicidal purposes, respectively, while the more easily procurable, and in many instances as deadly, vegetable poisons are comparatively still very little used in spite of the advance of civilization."

The following remarks of the Chemical Examiner in connection with the examination of spirit for deleterious adulterations are worthy of special note: "Sixty-three samples were examined, compared with 18 during the previous year. The object of the examination was to ascertain whether or not noxious drugs were added to increase the intoxicating effects of the spirit. The following drugs were especially sought for:—Indian hemp, opium, nux-vomica, datura, aconite, and in some cases tobacco. In every case negative results were obtained. Bearing in mind that some of the drugs supposed to be used are highly toxic, and not usually credited with producing intoxicating effects, and having very distinctive and unpleasant tastes, and also remembering that others are costly, it seems highly probable that the idea regarding the adulteration of country liquor with noxious drugs is based on incorrect deductions made by persons not possessed of any technical knowledge. There is no doubt that drugs are added in some cases to the contents of the fermenting vats, as, for example, nux-vomica seeds in bakur pills, and the incorrect conclusion has been arrived at that the distilled spirit must also contain the same drugs. But this inference, as I pointed out some years ago, is founded on a misconception. The active principles of such drugs as aconite, datura, nux-vomica, Indian hemp are non-volatile, and, though the fermented liquid may be saturated with such poisons, the distillate under ordinary conditions will be harmless." These remarks go far to prove that the popular opinion that country liquors are rendered noxious by the infusion of drugs of the nature of datura, hemp, aconite and the like, is founded on an altogether mistaken basis.

The thanks of the Lieutenant-Governor are due to Dr. Warden for his report, and for the good work he and his assistants have done during the year.

The able and exhaustive report on tube wells submitted by the same officer has already been dealt with in the Sanitation Department of this Office. It is likely to prove of great value in forwarding the cause of sanitary reform.

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

JOHN EDGAR,

Chief Secretary to the Govt. of Bengal.

RESOLUTION ON THE EMBANKMENT REPORTS FOR 1888-89.

No. 6957.

GOVERNMENT OF BENGAL—PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

Irrigation.

Dated Calcutta, the 21st April 1890.

RESOLUTION.

READ—

The embankment reports for 1888-89.

The budget grant for the maintenance of embankments in Bengal for the year 1888-89 was :—

			Rs.
Government embankments	...	...	6,31,928
Tuccavee embankments under contract	...	...	3,15,072
Total	...	...	9,47,000

The expenditure during the year was as follows :—

Government embankments	...	...	6,53,405
Tuccavee embankments under contract	...	...	1,29,796
Total	...	...	7,83,201

2. The accompanying statement shows the lengths of embankments in each civil division and district in Bengal other than Orissa. The D Schedule embankments are maintained at Government expense, and those classed as tuccavee are maintained at the cost of zemindars, either under contract for a fixed term of years, or under annual estimates for repairs. The expenditure on the latter is shown in the remarks column.

3. The total length of D Schedule embankments and the cost of maintaining the same, exclusive of charges for establishment and tools and plant, during the year under review, as compared with those of the previous year, are shown below :—

Year.	Length.		Cost.
	Miles.	Feet.
1888-89	1,127	387	2,98,623
1887-88	1,127	387	2,54,129

The average cost of maintenance per mile has increased from Rs. 225.47 in 1887-88 to Rs. 264.95 in 1888-89.

The chief cause for this increase in expenditure is to be found in the severity of the inundations with which the embanked districts of the Presidency and Burdwan Divisions were visited after the heavy rainfall of August 1888. The readings recorded on the gauges of the chief rivers, e.g., the Rupnarain, Damuda and Bhagirutti, are but a few inches lower than the highest recorded in any previous year. In the districts of Burdwan, 24-Pergunnahs, Moorshedabad, Hooghly and a portion of Midnapore numerous breaches of the embankments took place, and the outlay incurred in closing these and in retiring the embankments at threatened points was heavier than usual. Of work of a more special character which has been carried out may be mentioned the raising of portions of the left Damuda embankment in Burdwan; and in the Hooghly district, the remodelling of the embankments of the Madaria khall and of the Damuda, the raising of five miles of the left embankment of the Rupnarain and the construction of a new retired line at Mallook, on the same river, the encroachments of which at this point have been a source of heavy outlay for some years past.

4. The embankments of the Burdwan estate, which are included in Schedule D, were maintained at a cost of Rs. 1,38,819, against Rs. 91,156 in the year previous, or at an increase of Rs. 47,163.

5. The length of tuccavee embankments under contract is now 478 miles 4,942 feet. The small addition of 136 feet over the length shown in the last return is due to the taking over of the Rajbundibund in Midnapore. The average mileage rate of maintenance has risen for 242 miles of tuccavee embankment in the Midnapore district from Rs. 133.32 to Rs. 143.89; for 236 miles in the Patna Division the rate has fallen from Rs. 219.48 to 199.18. On the Gunduk embankments in the district of Chumparun the rate per mile has increased from Rs. 244.30 to Rs. 388.03. It appears from the report that though the Gunduk was at no period of the season in very high flood, yet that the persistent set of the river at various points on its left bank was such as to necessitate heavy expenditure in training and protective works, in order to hold the line of the embankment. The 120 miles of embankment on the Sarun bank of the Gunduk were maintained at the comparatively low rate of Rs. 158.82 per mile.

The losses and suffering caused in embanked districts of Lower Bengal by inundations through breaches in times of flood, and the more frequent occurrence each year of such breaches, in consequence of the deterioration of river channels where embankments exist, are subjects to which much attention has been paid throughout the year. The causes of the defective drainage in the southern portion of the district of Midnapore were investigated by a Committee of Enquiry appointed for that purpose; and a special survey division was organised to deal with the Damuda and Rupnarain rivers. In both these cases the difficulties are great on account of the gradual silting up of the natural drainage outlets of the country. The difficulty of this drainage question is yearly increasing rather than diminishing, but the matter is being carefully considered, and the Lieutenant-Governor trusts that some practical way of treating it may shortly be arrived at.

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

J. M. McNEILE, Col., R.E.,
Secretary to the Govt. of Bengal,
P. W. Dept.

Explanation.—Summary.—The normal means of air pressure and temperature are the arithmetical average or means of the reading during the same period for the last year. The humidity of the atmosphere is expressed in percentage, saturated air being represented by 100. A clear sky is denoted by 0 and an overcast sky by 10. The number of the rainfall in that district determined from the returns sent in by the subdivisional station for the period in question during the past year, divided by the number of stations. A rainy day is one on which at least hundredth of an inch fell.

for the week ending Friday, the 18th of April 1890.

ten years. The variations are negative when the mean for the week is less than the corresponding normal mean, and positive when greater. denoting cloud amount represents the part of the sky covered, the whole sky being denoted by 10. Under the head District observations of rainfall the normal means 17 years. The means of the district are the numerical average of the rainfall returns received in the district, i.e., from total rainfall at the subdivisions.

CALCUTTA, the 22nd April 1890.

SUMMARY OF THE METEOROLOGICAL AND RAINFALL OBSERVATIONS TAKEN IN BENGAL FOR THE WEEK ENDING FRIDAY, THE 18TH OF APRIL 1890.

At the commencement of the present week weather was everywhere settled; south-westerly winds blew over the whole province, Dhubri being the only station reporting an easterly wind, temperature was above the normal, and rising rapidly in the north-east, but was falling slowly in Chutia Nagpur and part of South-West Bengal. The low-pressure area which extended along the foot of the hills on Saturday, the first day of the week, continued without much change relatively to the neighbouring parts, but pressure changes of considerable amount have been going on for the greater part of the week. During the first two days the changes were small; the low-pressure area contracted, and easterly winds commenced in Behar. Temperature was then from three to six degrees in excess in Behar, Chutia Nagpur, the upper part of South-West Bengal, and the lower part of North Bengal, while along the eastern boundary and at the head of the Bay there was either a small excess or defect ranging up to  $3^{\circ}$  at Cuttack. On Monday, the 14th, a rapid fall of pressure set in, the changes in North Behar and North Bengal in some cases exceeding a tenth of an inch. On the following two days pressure rose briskly but uniformly, and the effect of the previous rapid fall continued on these two days in south-easterly winds prevailing over the eastern half of the province. The only district where winds were not south or south-east was Chutia Nagpur. Rain began to fall in North Bengal on Tuesday, extending on Wednesday to East Bengal and the eastern parts of South-West Bengal, where fairly general, and in some cases heavy, rain fell till the end of the week. With the commencement of rainfall temperature fell in North and East Bengal, but in the other districts, where rain was almost entirely absent, the change of temperature was insignificant, a large excess being general. On Thursday pressure again fell briskly and a distinct depression formed in the North-West Provinces, covering part of Behar and Chutia Nagpur. The increase in the amount of rainfall in North and East Bengal was due to the unsettled weather that resulted, and a few scattered showers fell in North Behar and Orissa, while rain was fairly general in Nuddea, Khulna, and Jessore, and in part of the Moorsheebad district, on Friday. Thus the week ended with more seriously disturbed weather than has been experienced this season in Bengal, the interaction of the south-westerly winds from Chutia Nagpur with the south-easterly winds in Lower Bengal and the north-east winds in North Bengal, along with the continuance of this arrangement for some days, having caused general and for the season heavy rain over the whole of the eastern half of the province.

Pressure—Changes have been fairly large, with the exception of the first two days and the last day of the week. On Monday the 14th there was a rapid fall followed by a brisk rise on the 15th and 16th. On the 17th there was again a brisk to rapid fall, and on Friday the 18th slight irregular changes. On the 14th and 15th, and again on the 17th and 18th, there was defect of over a twentieth of an inch, but on the other days the differences from the normal were very slight. The means for the week are all below the normal, the largest differences being about a twentieth of an inch in South-West Bengal and Behar, and the smallest two to three-hundredths of an inch in Orissa and the neighbouring part of South-West Bengal.

Temperature—Has been subject to rather large changes and the distribution has been irregular. Thus at Cuttack, Calcutta, Dacca, and Darjeeling the mean maximum temperature is below the normal, while at Burdwan, Patna, Purneah, and Hazaribagh there has been excess of from  $3.5^{\circ}$  to  $4.5^{\circ}$ . The night temperatures have been all above the normal except at Dacca, the largest being  $5^{\circ}$  at Gya. The means for the large divisions are slightly below the normal in two cases—Orissa and East Bengal, and above the normal in the others from  $2^{\circ}$  to  $3.5^{\circ}$ .

The actual temperatures during the week, the range from day to night, and their variations from the normals are seen in the following table, where the average maximum, minimum and mean temperatures at nine typical stations in different districts in the province are given together with their normal values:—

Rainfall—Commenced on Tuesday in North and East Bengal, but the showers on that day were slight and scattered. The area and amount both increased on Wednesday, and on Thursday and Friday, the 17th and 18th, general rain fell in those two districts and in part of South-West Bengal, but in Behar, Chutia Nagpur, Orissa, and the western half of South-West Bengal very little rain has fallen. Thunderstorms have in some cases been severe, and in one case in the Mymensingh district the storm approached in violence to a tornado, but as it did not pass near any observatory, no details have been received. The largest falls are 4·8 inches at Nattore, 3·3 inches at Lalgola, and about 3 inches at Narasingunge, Dacca, Munshigunge, and Agartola. The means are 1·3 inches in East Bengal, 0·85 in North Bengal, 0·28 in South-West Bengal, and in the other districts under a tenth of an inch except in Chutia Nagpur, where no rain has fallen.

The following table gives the summary of the temperature and rainfall data of each of the seven meteorological divisions of the province for the week ending Friday, the 18th of April 1890 :—

The mean pressure, temperature, &c., are deduced from the traces of the Barograph and Thermograph and from observations made at 6h., 10h., 16h. and 22h.

The maximum and minimum temperatures are obtained from self-registering thermometers. All the thermometers are verified, and the readings have been corrected to a standard constructed and verified at the Kew Observatory. They are exposed under a thatched shed open at the sides, and are suspended four feet above the ground.

The barometer readings are corrected approximately to those of the standard, Newman's No 86, formerly at the Surveyor-General's Office.

The hygrometric elements are obtained from Tables III, IV, and V of the official tables computed in the Meteorological Office, and based on Regnault's modifications of August's formula.

The directions and the movement of the wind are taken from the trace of a Beckley's anemograph.

The month of the rain-gauge is one foot above the ground.

MEMORANDUM.

Weekly review of births and deaths in twenty-seven of the principal towns of Bengal for the week ending with Saturday, the 5th April 1890.

BIRTHS.

The births registered during the week ending with Saturday, the 5th April 1890, in twenty-seven principal towns of Bengal, excluding one (Hughli and Chinsurah) from which no return has yet been received, correspond to an annual rate of 14·2 per 1,000 of the aggregate population of the twenty-six towns, which is 1,029,887. This rate is 6·3 lower than the average rate of the corresponding week of the past five years, and is also lower than the rate of the corresponding week of any of the past five years—vide the figures below :—

General remarks on the fluctuations of principal staples carried over the East Indian Railway during 1 weeks ended 22nd February 1890.

INCREASES.

Cotton.—The increase was chiefly in despatches from stations above Cawnpore to Howrah for export.
Wheat.—The improvement in this staple was due to a fair demand in Calcutta for local consumption, despatches having been made chiefly from Sahabgunge, Bhagulpore, Aligarh, Hathras, and Delhi.

Gram and Pulses.—There was a decrease in the weight carried attended with an increase in the earnings; the former was due to heavy short lead despatches last year from stations on the R. district. The increase in earnings was chiefly in dāl from Cawnpore to Howrah for export to Rangoon.

Iron.—The increase under this head was chiefly in iron pipes despatched from Howrah for the new water-works at Agra and Delhi; some scrap materials also were brought down to Howrah for sale.

Oils.—This was chiefly in despatches of kerosine-oil from Howrah to Patna via Moghul Serai, and to stations on the East Indian Railway.

Opium.—The increase was principally in consignments to Howrah from Ghazipore via Tari Ghât.

Foreign Railway Material.—This was chiefly in despatches of materials to Damooda, Chakardarpur, and Unaria for the Bengal-Nagpur Railway, and to Delhi for the Delhi-Unbala-Kalka Railway.

Salt.—Due to a good demand for Liverpool salt. Despatches were chiefly made from Howrah to stations on the Assam-Bihar, Tirhoot State, and the Bengal and North-Western Railways.

Saltpetre.—Chiefly in despatches from Patna, Mokameh Ghât, and Delhi to Howrah for export to China.

Seeds.—The increase was in the new crop of mustard-seed from the Tirhoot State and the Oudh and Rohilkhand Railways to Howrah, principally for local consumption.

Spices.—Principally in chillies from Mokameh and Mokameh Ghât to Howrah, Burdwan, and stations on the Eastern Bengal State Railway.

Sugar (refined and unrefined).—The increase was chiefly in despatches from stations on the Shahabad district to Howrah for export to Assam and Burma, owing to supplies from Mauritius having fallen off.

Bones.—In despatches from Mokameh Ghât, Allahabad and via Moghul Serai to Bally and Chitpur.

DECREASES.

Coal and Coke.—This is in continuation of the decreases previously reported, and was principally in downwards traffic.

Piece-goods.—The decrease was chiefly in despatches from Howrah; there was also a falling off in the despatches from Bombay to Cawnpore via Jubbulpore consequent on diversion to the Itarsi route.

Rice (husked and unhusked).—The falling off in this commodity was principally at stations on the "A" and "B" districts, owing to there being no demand at stations on the "B" district and on the Tirhoot State Railway this year.

Hides.—The decrease was in despatches from the principal sending stations up-country, and was due to small supplies in local markets.

Non-existence of Harrington rock.

THE British Admiralty has given notice (No 128 of 1890) that the following information has been received from Lieutenant and Commander G. C. Frederick, H. M. Surveying-vessel Dart, relative to a search made in December 1889 for Harrington rock, reported in 1874 as lying southward of Coquet island, Howick group, and to have less than 6 feet of water on it:—

The Dart was anchored 3 cables south-eastward of the reported position of Harrington rock (lat.  $14^{\circ} 33\frac{1}{2}'$  S, long.  $145^{\circ} 1\frac{1}{2}'$  E.), and the boats sounded closely around for a distance of  $7\frac{1}{2}$  cables, without any evidence of shoal water being observed.

The soundings show the bottom as evenly sloping from  $6\frac{1}{2}$  fathoms near the track recommended on the west to 8 fathoms on the east, and no appearance of shoal or discoloured water was seen from the masthead. Subsequently the Dart steamed over the reported position.

On two previous occasions the Dart had passed close to the reported position without any indication of shoal water being seen.

Considering that in the original report there was no positive evidence of a rock, and that had one existed it would probably ere this have been again reported, this examination of Dart is considered to disprove the original report, and Harrington rock has therefore been removed from the Admiralty Charts.

HIGH COURT NOTICE.

NOTIFICATION.

THE following Rules, framed by the High Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal, under section 2 of Act III of 1879, which have been sanctioned by the Local Governments of Bengal and Assam and confirmed by the Governor-General in Council, under section 5 of the same Act, are laid down for the guidance of the Subordinate Civil Courts.

The Rules shall come into force on the 1st day of January, 1891.

FORT WILLIAM, the 23rd April, 1890.

H. W. C. CARNDUFF,
Offg. Registrar.

Rules for the Maintenance and Destruction of the Registers of Subordinate Civil Courts.

1. In supersession of all previous orders on the subject, the Court is pleased to prescribe the Registers, of which lists and forms are appended, to be kept in the Courts subordinate to it.

2. The Registers are shown under three classes—

A—Primary Registers.

B—Subsidiary Registers.

C—Accounts Registers.

The Primary Registers are those which have to do directly with cases filed in Court and which form a quasi-record of the progress and disposal of such cases. The Subsidiary Registers are those which have to be maintained for administrative purposes or for the purpose of preparing statistical returns. The Accounts Registers are those which have to do with the receipt and payment of money.

3. The classes of Courts in which the different Registers are to be kept up, and the periods for which they are to be preserved, are shown in the accompanying lists. The periods stated therein are to be reckoned from the date of the last entry in the Register, and the Court is pleased to direct, under Section 2 of Act III of 1879, that, at the expiration of those periods, the Registers shall be destroyed. It is not necessary to open new Registers in every instance each year.

4. Wherever it is possible, the Primary Registers and the Accounts Registers should be kept in English.

5. While the Court does not positively forbid the maintenance of other Subsidiary Registers in the various Courts subordinate to it, the accompanying lists specify all the Registers which, it is believed, are absolutely necessary either for judicial or administrative purposes.

6. The forms in most cases sufficiently explain themselves. The following additional instructions are, however, issued for general guidance.

A—PRIMARY REGISTERS.

7. Registers 1 and 2, Register of Civil Suits and Register of Rent Suits.—To facilitate reference in the making up of Quarterly and Annual Statements, column 2 of the General Register of Suits prescribed by Section 58, Act XII of 1842, shall be sub-divided into two columns. The first sub-column shall contain the consecutive number of the suit in the General Register, the second shall contain a subordinate serial number for all suits of the following kinds, viz., (a) Small Cause Court class, and (b) Suits for Money, distinguishing suits up to Rs. 500 cognizable by Small Cause Courts from other cases.

For the column headed "Appearance" in the said General Register of Suits, and the sub-columns headed respectively "Day for parties to appear," "Plaintiff" and "Defendant" shall be substituted a column headed "Mode of disposal," with a sub-heading "Whether decided ex parte or after contest or on compromise." For the two sub-columns under the heading "Appeals," the following shall be substituted—"No. and date of Appeal" and "Date and purport of Judgment in Appeal." For the first sub-column under the head of "Execution" the following shall be substituted—"No. and date of application." In columns 17 and 18 shall be entered not only the particulars of the order on First Appeal, but also the particulars of the order on Second Appeal or Revision, if any.

The High Court takes this opportunity to impress upon the attention of all Subordinate Courts the necessity of duly and regularly filling in the particulars regarding proceedings in execution of decrees. The proceedings upon each application for execution should find a place in this Register which is intended to show a complete history of the suit from institution to final satisfaction of decree.

8. Register 11.—A separate Register of Execution Cases has been prescribed, not with the object of superseding the information to be entered in the execution columns of the General Registers, but for the sake of administrative convenience, and also for the purpose of showing proceedings in execution of decrees of other Courts.

9. Register 13.—In the Register of Appeals prescribed by Section 548 of the Code of Civil Procedure for the column headed "Appearance" and the three sub-columns headed respectively "Date for parties to appear," "Appellant" and "Respondent" shall be substituted a column headed "Mode of disposal," with a sub-heading "Whether decided ex parte or after contest or on compromise." A column headed "Remarks" shall be added to this Register, and the particulars of any order passed on Second Appeal or Revision shall be entered therein.

10. Register 15.—In this Register shall be included Appeals from Orders under Section 588 of Act XIV of 1882, and Appeals in Miscellaneous Judicial Cases only. Applications to withdraw or transfer an Appeal under Section 25, Code of Civil Procedure, applications for the re-admission or re-hearing of an Appeal under Section 558 or 560, and applications for review of Judgment under Section 623, are not Appeals but of the nature of original applications though made to an Appellate Court. They will, therefore, be entered in the Register of Miscellaneous Judicial Cases (No. 7) kept up in that Court, and they will be shown in Monthly Statement B, Part 2, Quarterly Statement B, and Annual Statement 4, Part 2.

When an appeal is remanded, revived or reviewed it will of course be shown in its proper place in the Registers of Appeals.

11. Register 17.—Register 17 shall be used in Courts of Small Causes only, and not by Munsiffs and Subordinate Judges vested with Small Cause Court powers.

12. Register 18.—Register 18 shall be used in Courts of Small Causes, and every Subordinate Judge and Munsiff vested under Section 25, Act XII of 1887, with the jurisdiction of a Judge of a Court of Small Causes, whatever the pecuniary limits assigned, shall use this Summons Book for purposes of record in connection with cases tried under such powers.

13. The High Court do not consider it necessary to prescribe a Register for any cases of a non-judicial nature other than those which will be entered in Registers 9 and 10.

B—SUBSIDIARY REGISTERS.

14. Register 1.—The Diary shall contain all the particulars entered in the form, and each day's entry shall be signed by the presiding officer before leaving the Court. Each case fixed for any day shall be entered in advance immediately upon a date or adjourned date being fixed, and the entry as to each case shall show whether it is for final disposal at the first hearing or for settlement of issues or for trial after adjournment, or for any other purpose. The Diary shall show briefly the progress made in each case, and when witnesses are examined in any case the number of such witnesses shall be stated.

15. Register 2.—The Register of Petitions requires no explanation. The number of petitions received each day with their serial numbers, as shown in this Register, shall be entered in the Diary.

16. Register 3.—The instructions given at the foot of the Register of Attendance of Witnesses shall be carefully followed.

17. Register 7.—The Register of Applications for Copies shall be in charge of the comparing clerk and not of a copyist. Applications for copies, or inspection of Wills and Registers of Wills, shall, in accordance with the orders of the Government of Bengal, be entered in this Register.

18. Registers 8 and 9.—The District Judge shall furnish each Civil Court Amin with copies of these two Registers, which shall be kept up regularly by the Amin.

19. Register 13.—There shall be maintained in each of the Subordinate Civil Courts a Register in this form of all Pleaders and Mukhtars enrolled in it under sections 8 and 9 of the Legal Practitioners Act (XVIII of 1879).

C—ACCOUNTS REGISTERS.

20. Register 20.—The Sale Account Register shall be filled up in every case by the Nazir or other officer holding the sale, and shall be presented by him at the close of the day to the presiding officer of the Court under the orders of which the sale has been held.

The provisions of the Civil Procedure Code render it necessary that cash should sometimes be received by the Nazir even where sales are held at head-quarters where there is a treasury. It is therefore very important that all Judges should see that the cash so received is duly forwarded to the treasury and credited in account, and it is the object of the Sale Account Register to bring to the notice of the Judges all such cash transactions that they may satisfy themselves as to the regular and immediate disposal of the proceeds.

21. Registers 23 and 24.—The Detailed Daily Register of Court-fees realized shall be kept in order to secure the accuracy of entries made in the Abstract Daily Register of Court-fees realized, and the instructions at the foot of the form shall be carefully observed.

The form of Abstract Daily Register of Court-fees realized has been prescribed for adoption by the Government of India and shall be regularly maintained. The entries in this Register are not to be made in detail, but only so as to show the aggregate value of the stamps filed in Court during each day under each of the five classes indicated. The entries shall be initialled daily by the presiding officer.

22. The instructions as to the keeping of the Account Registers, contained in the rules for the receipt and payment of money by Judicial Officers, which are incorporated in Chapter III of the High Court's Civil Rules and Orders, should be carefully observed. The forms, which for the sake of convenience are attached to these rules, are the same as those contained in that Chapter.

23. These rules shall take effect from the 1st of January, 1891.

Previous Rules cancelled.

24. The following rules in the General Rules and Circular Orders, Civil, have been either superseded or are cancelled by the rules now issued:—

Chapter II, Rule 2, clauses (a) and (b), pages 24—26. (C. O. No. 11 of 7th June 1877.)

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

A Dictionary of the Economic Products of India.

By DR. GEO. WATT, C.I.E.,

Reporter on Economic Products.

Published under the authority of the Government of India in the Revenue and Agricultural Department.

The first two volumes of this work are now ready for issue, and intending subscribers are invited to register their names with the Superintendent of Government Printing, Calcutta.

The Dictionary is intended to deal with the products of India—animal, vegetable, and mineral; each product being treated after a uniform plan, the paragraphs of which give the scientific, vernacular, and European names; habitat or source; history; properties and uses, both chemical and industrial; trade statistics; markets, &c. The work is arranged alphabetically according to scientific nomenclature, but commercial and important vernacular names are also given as cross references, so that little difficulty need be experienced in finding the account of a product even when its scientific name is unknown to the reader.

An important feature of the Dictionary consists in the fact that derived information is in every instance given under quotation marks, and with a reference to the original publication. Numerous contributions have, however, furnished the results of new discoveries, and confirmed the vernacular names; so that the Dictionary is not only a complete compilation of published information, but has been brought abreast of the most recent inventions and discoveries.

Volume I contains the letters A and B, and consists of 650 royal pages; Volume II embraces the letter C in 689 pages; Volume III is in course of preparation, and will contain the letters D, E, F, and G. The whole work will, it is expected, be completed in six volumes by 1891; but a seventh volume may also be issued consisting of an index to all the vernacular and other names contained in the Dictionary; and this as a work of reference, it is hoped, may prove of considerable value.

The price to subscribers will be in India Rs. 30 and in England 2 guineas, payable in advance, for the complete set. An extra charge for packing and postage will be made for the set—in India, at 8 annas per volume, and for England at 2 rupees 6 annas per volume.

For copies bound in half calf or half morocco, Rs. 6 and 8 shillings respectively will be charged extra for the whole sets.

*. No copies will be issued to non-subscribers till the work is complete, and no single volume will be sold separately. The price to non-subscribers will be Rs. 45 in India, and 3 guineas in England, exclusive of packing and postage.

RULES FOR CONTROLLING THE TRANSPORT OF EMIGRANTS TO THE LABOUR DISTRICTS OF ASSAM.

GENERAL DEPARTMENT.

Calcutta, the 17th April, 1890.

RESOLUTION.

THE rules sanctioned last year under Bengal Act I of 1889 provide for the inspection of places of accommodation for emigrants in the mofussil, but no reference is made in them to the buildings maintained for that purpose in Calcutta. In practice, these have been considered as subject to inspection by the Superintendent of Emigration, and it seems to the Lieutenant-Governor to be advisable to recognize this arrangement by rule.

2. The importance of regulating the railway journey was recognized from the first, and great improvements have been introduced with the consent of the railway authorities. It is now considered expedient to give to these arrangements the force of rules, particularly as that course has been adopted with regard to emigrants registered under Act I of 1882. Where the precautions it is now proposed to adopt are more detailed, it has been deemed advisable, for the sake of conformity, to amend also the rules under Act I of 1882.

3. The Lieutenant-Governor accordingly proposes to issue the following rules, any objections to which will be considered on the 28th May next:—

Rules to be issued in addition to the existing rules under Act I (B.C.) of 1889.

18. The daily despatch of emigrants by train shall be previously arranged for by the forwarding agent with the railway authorities concerned, so as to prevent overcrowding by the securing of sufficient carriage accommodation for the whole number of emigrants intending to travel.

19. The agent shall provide for emigrants started on a railway journey after 9 A.M. a cooked meal, and for those started at or before that hour a dry meal instead, consisting of bread or biscuit and sugar in the proportion of one pound of bread or two large biscuits and one ounce of sugar to each emigrant of and above ten years of age, and half the above quantities to each emigrant under the age of ten years. Also, if the journey between two halting stations is likely to occupy more than six hours, bread or biscuit and sugar in the same proportions shall be given by the agent for distribution to the emigrants for consumption during the journey.

20. When a medical officer has been appointed by Government to examine emigrants, no emigrants shall be put into the train without being inspected and passed as fit to undertake the journey by such officer. The medical officer will report any breach of rule 19 which may come to his notice.

21. When despatching emigrants by train, the purest drinking water obtainable shall be supplied by the agent in a sufficient number of suitable vessels conveniently placed with the emigrants in the carriages. Emigrants shall be afforded opportunities for leaving their carriages at three selected watering-stations between Sara and Parbutipur, one-third of the carriages at a time being emptied to admit of the station latrines being used and of additional supplies of drinking-water being obtained.

22. Emigrants about to travel by train shall be accommodated in third class carriages specially reserved for them, or in suitably constructed goods wagons attached to passenger trains only, and the number in each such carriage or goods wagon shall in no case exceed the regulation number.

23. The train journey of emigrants under conveyance from recruiting districts direct to Dhubri or to Goalundo shall be performed by the Hooghly-Naihati route.

24. If cholera occurs on the journey by train, the patient shall as soon as possible be removed, by and at the expense of the railway authorities, to the nearest cholera hospital or other suitable place for medical treatment; and particulars of the case, furnishing name of emigrant, batch to which belonging, and depot from which originally despatched, shall be forwarded by the station-master to the officers concerned.

5A. It shall be the duty of the Superintendent of Inland Emigration to inspect places of accommodation provided for emigrants in Calcutta.

Rules to be substituted for the existing Rules 64, 65 and 69 under the Inland Emigration Act, I of 1882.

64. The daily despatch of emigrants shall be previously arranged for by the contractor or forwarding agent with the railway authorities concerned, so as to prevent overcrowding by the securing of sufficient carriage accommodation for the whole number of emigrants intending to travel.

65. The contractors or garden sardar shall provide for emigrants started on a railway journey after 9 A.M. a cooked meal, and for those started at or before that hour a dry meal instead, consisting of bread or biscuit and sugar in the proportion of one pound of bread or two large biscuits and one ounce of sugar to each emigrant of and above ten years of age, and half the above quantities to each emigrant under the age of ten years. Also, if the journey between two halting stations is likely to occupy more than six hours, bread or biscuit and sugar in the same proportions shall be given by the contractor or garden sardar for distribution to the emigrants for consumption during the journey.

69. When a medical officer has been appointed by Government to examine emigrants, no emigrants shall be put into the train without being inspected and passed as fit to undertake the journey by such officer.

When despatching emigrants by train, the purest drinking-water obtainable shall be supplied by contractors or forwarding agents in a sufficient number of suitable vessels conveniently placed with the emigrants in the carriages. In the absence of latrine arrangements, emigrants shall be afforded opportunities for leaving their carriages at three selected watering-stations between Sara and Parbutipur, one-third of the carriages at a time being emptied to admit of the station latrines being used and of additional supplies of drinking-water being obtained.

Rules to be issued in addition to the existing rules under Act I of 1882.

Emigrants about to travel by train shall be accommodated in third class carriages that are specially reserved for them, or in suitably constructed goods wagons attached to passenger trains only, and the number in each such carriage or goods wagon shall in no case exceed the regulation number.

The train journey of emigrants under conveyance from recruiting districts direct to Dhubri or to Goalundo shall be performed by the Hooghly-Naihati route.

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

P. NOLAN,

Secretary to the Government of Bengal.

RESOLUTION ON THE IRRIGATION OPERATIONS OF CANALS IN BENGAL DURING KHARIF SEASON OF 1889-90.

No. 719I.

GOVERNMENT OF BENGAL—PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

Irrigation.

Dated Calcutta, the 28th April 1890.

RESOLUTION.

READ—

Statements Nos I, II, and III of Irrigation Operations of Canals in Bengal during kharif season of 1889-90.

OBSERVATIONS.—The area irrigated during the kharif season of 1889-90 was 481,111 acres against 485,502 acres in 1888-89; a decrease of .9 per cent.

2. On the Orissa Canals the kharif area under irrigation has expanded by 10,717 acres, and it is probable that when the measurements of lands upon some of the canals which have not yet been cadastrally surveyed are finally completed, the area will be found to be actually larger than that shown in the statements. The character of the season in many respects resembled that of 1888-89, during which a larger area of kharif was irrigated than in any previous year in the history of these canals. Of the additional area now brought under lease, 8,772 acres are in the Balasore district, the increase in the irrigation corresponding to a decline in the rainfall from 40.04 inches to 31.40 inches.

3. On the Midnapore Canal only 29.67 inches of rainfall were registered against 51.42 in the previous year. There was an active demand for water, especially at the end of the season; and the discharge of the Cossye, on which less reliance can be placed than on any other river in Bengal used as a source of supply, was fairly well maintained. The returns show a nominal decrease on this canal of 1,079 acres; but as the supply in 1888-89 was admittedly insufficient, and large remissions on the assessed area had in consequence to be granted, the results of 1889-90 really indicate an improved state of affairs.

4. In the three districts watered by the Sone Canals, the rainfall from July to October was below the average and much below the rainfall of the previous year. The season, however, was not an unfavourable one as far as the rice crop was concerned, for rain continued to fall until a late date in September. A break which then occurred and lasted till nearly the end of the hathia (25th September to 8th October) produced a strong demand for water for irrigation; and though there was rain on 8th October, the subsequent showers in that month were insignificant. During the 30 days from 21st September to 20th October, the Sone Canals in this as in the preceding year were worked almost to full power, but the pressure during this period was not as acute as in the corresponding period in 1888-89; and the area to which water was supplied shows a small falling off. In five-year leases, however, notwithstanding that 45,455 acres had lapsed on the 1st April 1889, and that applications for 29,788 acres were refused on the ground that the village channels were not of the required standard, and for other good reasons, there is an increase of 16,000 acres, so that the deficiency already noted took place entirely in annual kharif leases.

ORDER.—Ordered that a copy of this Resolution, and of the Statements Nos. I, II, and III, be submitted to the Government of India, in the Public Works Department, for information; also that copies be forwarded to the Commissioners of the Orissa, Burdwan, and Patna Divisions; the Collectors of Cuttack, Midnapore, Patna, Shahabad, Gya, and Sarun; the Superintending Engineers of the Orissa, South-Western, and Sone Circles; and the Examiner of Public Works Accounts, Bengal, for information.

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

J. M. McNEILE, Col., R.E.,

RESOLUTION ON THE REPORT OF THE HEALTH OFFICER OF THE PORT OF CALCUTTA FOR THE YEAR 1889.

No. 1084 Marine.

GOVERNMENT OF BENGAL—PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

Marine.

Calcutta, the 28th April 1890.

RESOLUTION.

READ—

A letter No. 1143, dated the 26th February 1890, from the Sanitary Commissioner, Bengal, submitting the report of the Health Officer of the Port of Calcutta for the year 1889.

DR. RICHARDS was the Health Officer of the Port of Calcutta from the beginning of the year up to the 14th September, when he took leave. Shortly afterwards he died. He was relieved by Dr. G. Jameson, who acted until the 11th November, when he made over charge to Dr. R. MacLeod, who has submitted the present report. The Health Officer asked to be furnished with a suitable boat for his use, as the one which he had was too large to be safely handled within the moorings. A new boat has now been supplied.

2. The report shows that 1,443 vessels were inspected during the year, against 1,464 in 1888. The reduction in the number of vessels inspected is unimportant.

Dr. Richards brought to notice that many steamers arrived in the port which had unsuitable and ill-ventilated accommodation for their crews, and the Health Officer was asked to furnish instances of such ships, with a view to the Board of Trade being furnished with information on the subject. Certain instances having already been furnished to the Government, the owners of the vessels not ordinarily trading to the United Kingdom were addressed on the subject, and they have undertaken to improve the ventilation of the crew spaces. Further enquiries are now being made regarding other vessels, the result of which will be communicated to the Government of India.

3. The number of European seamen who arrived in port fell from 22,705 in 1888 to 20,662 in the year under report, but the daily average population was 1,626 against 1,510 in 1888. Including deaths out of hospital, the death-rates per mille of the last five years were as follows:—

				Cholera.	Other causes.	Total.
1885	...	...	...	4.72	25.99	30.71
1886	...	...	...	11.61	33.53	45.14
1887	...	...	...	10.03	16.91	26.94
1888	...	...	...	10.59	27.15	37.74
1889	...	...	...	11.07	20.29	31.36

The following table shows the number of admissions into hospital and deaths from different diseases during the past five years:—

	1885.		1886.		1887.		1888.		1889.
	Admissions.	Deaths.	Admissions.	Deaths.	Admissions.	Deaths.	Admissions.	Deaths.	Admissions.	Deaths.

Total ...	1,976	40	2,714	71	1,719	35	1,575	49	1,816	43

4. The total number of casualties from all causes was 51 against 57 in 1888. Of these, 43 occurred in hospitals and 8 elsewhere. As regards the cases in hospitals, it is satisfactory to notice that the death-rate fell from 32·4 per mille in the previous year to 26·4 during the year under report, which is nearly equal to the quinquennial mean (26).

5. The death-rate from cholera was slightly lower than the average of the previous five years. As regards the seasonal incidence of this disease, it may be observed that the rise in the port did not always correspond with that in the town.

The Health Officer brings to notice that timely information is not always given to him by the Hospital authorities of the occurrence of cholera on board ships with a view to enable him to inspect them early. The Inspector-General of Civil Hospitals has already been asked to instruct the Superintendents of the Medical College, General, Howrah, Campbell and Mayo Hospitals, to convey to the Health Officer early information of cases of cholera, small-pox, or other contagious diseases common in India, and of scurvy occurring amongst sailors, and his attention will again be invited to the subject. Rules have also been framed with a view to enable the Health Officer to get information of such diseases occurring on board direct from the shipping. They are under the consideration of the Government and will shortly be issued.

6. It is satisfactory to observe that there were no admissions from small-pox during the year, against 1 in 1888, and that no death has been reported from this disease since 1881.

It is worthy of remark that there were no admissions from scurvy during the year, against 3, 4, 7 and 13 in 1888, 1887, 1886 and 1885 respectively.

Six cases of sunstroke were admitted into hospital with 1 death, against 19 admissions with 5 deaths in hospital and 3 deaths out of hospital in 1888. Three deaths from this disease are reported to have occurred on board ships in port.

There was no death either from acute alcoholism or delirium-tremens.

7. Fifteen deaths are reported to have occurred from drowning, against 6 in 1888. The late Dr. Richards suggested that death from this cause might to a certain extent be prevented by putting up hand-rails on each side of the landing-stages. It was ascertained that none of the accidents in 1888 happened from off the jetty gangways, and no action was taken in the matter. The Health Officer will be instructed to report the causes so far as they can be ascertained of the 15 accidents which occurred in 1889.

8. Although the number of European seamen admitted into hospital on account of venereal disease in 1889 was greater than in the previous year, the rate per mille on the average strength was lower than that of the past three years, and it compares favourably with the quinquennial mean.

At sea there were 36 deaths, against 35 during the previous year.

9. The following table shows the mortality from all causes among the native floating population, the averages being calculated on a population of 25,000 :—

Sickness and mortality among the native floating population.

		Total deaths		Ratio per mille.
		1889.	1888.	1889.	1888.
Cholera	...	80	95	3·2	3·7
Bowel-complaints	...	9	7	·36	·27
Fever, malarious	...	5	22	·2	·85
Do., simple	...	8		·32
Other causes	...	27	24	1·08	·96
Total	...	129	148	5·16	5·78

The figures, however, as stated last year, are not very reliable.

10. The total death-rate among the lascar crews on the river was 1·29 per 1,000 against 1·6 per 1,000 in 1888. No complaints were made by the lascar crews during the year.

11. During the year four ships arrived in port with pilgrims from Jeddah, in one of which there were two cases of small-pox. In the annual report for the year 1887, the Health Officer of the Port made certain proposals with a view to ensure the more efficient sanitary treatment of vessels arriving in port with cases of small-pox. It has been decided that it must be left to the captains and officers of ships to assist the Health Officer in carrying out the provisions of the Compulsory Vaccination Act.

Water-supply.

12. No complaint was made in regard to the water-supply to the shipping during the year.

13. The Lieutenant-Governor notices with satisfaction that there has been a general improvement in the conservancy of the foreshore of the river, some of the nuisances formerly complained of having been removed. Although the drain at King's Road, Howrah, still discharges into the river, yet it is more free from pollution than it formerly was, as measures have been taken by the Municipal Commissioners of Howrah to prevent offensive matter being thrown into the drain till the proposed scheme for draining the whole town is carried out. The nuisance at the jetties, which was formerly a subject of complaint, has been removed by providing an additional latrine within the jetty enclosure. The flushing inlets have also been free from offensive smell during the year.

Dr. MacLeod reports that the highly objectionable outflow of liquid sewage from Fort William has received the personal attention of the Sanitary Commissioner, and hopes that permanent good will result. A scheme for connecting the sewers of Fort William with those of the town has been prepared, and the Government of India has been asked to have it carried out.

It is satisfactory to observe that the defects noticed in the previous year's report, regarding the state of Kassi Mitter's burning ghât, have been remedied by raising a wall on the river side, thus preventing the cremation of bodies being seen from the river.

The Health Officer brings to notice that at a brick-field at Ghosery the foreshore is not kept in proper sanitary condition. The Health Officer will be asked to submit a special report on this subject.

14. The Lieutenant-Governor, while noticing with satisfaction the decrease in the number of corpses found in the river, regrets to find that the number of carcasses is still on the increase. The Municipal and Judicial Departments of this Government will be asked to take further steps in this matter.

Corpses and carcasses floating in the river.

15. The Lieutenant-Governor notices with deep regret the untimely death of Dr. Richards, and endorses the remarks of the Conclusion.

Sanitary Commissioner that in him the Government has lost a zealous, energetic and efficient officer. His Honour is glad to observe that Dr. MacLeod and the Native Sanitary Inspector, Baboo Nanda Lal Haldar, have performed their duties satisfactorily.

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

J. M. McNEILE, Col., R.E.,
Secretary to the Govt. of Bengal.

Receipts.

2. The estimate of receipts from the Jetties (Part I) is taken at Rs. 24,000 below the estimate for the previous year. It is stated that there was a great falling off in the grain export trade, causing in the first quarter of 1889-90 diminished shipping receipts. The receipts at the Petroleum Wharf at Budge-Budge and at the Tea Warehouse at Armenian Ghât are taken in each case at Rs. 20,000 over the figures for the previous year.

3. In Appendix B a sum of Rs. 20,000 is entered, representing the earnings of the Commissioners' hopper barges. The Lieutenant-Governor desires that the Commissioners will furnish the details on which this estimate is based, together with a schedule of the charges levied for the use of the barges.

4. In Appendix G a sum of Rs. 5,229 is entered as the rent to be received from the Government for the portion of the Commissioners' premises which is occupied by the Port Office. As the new Port Office will be ready for occupation at the latest by the 1st of January 1891, the amount should be reduced by 25 per cent.

5. The estimate of receipts from the Commissioners' Tramway [Part IV] is taken at Rs. 3,20,000. From information recently received it appears that the charges levied by the Commissioners for the conveyance of goods by their tramway have not, as required by law, received the sanction of the Local Government. The schedule of these charges is now under the consideration of the Government, and the estimate is accepted subject to any modifications that may be made hereafter. The estimate may also require modification to bring the working of the tramway into conformity with the provisions of the Railway Act which has recently been passed by the Council of His Excellency the Governor-General for making Laws and Regulations.

6. In estimate No. 23 a sum of Rs. 13,000 is entered, which represents fees for the survey of vessels. The charges for the survey of vessels will, on and after the 1st of May 1890, be disbursed by the Government, and the fees will be credited to the Government with effect from the same date. The estimate of receipts should be revised accordingly.

Expenditure.

7. An increase of Rs. 21,000 is proposed in the expenditure at the Jetties [Part I]. The principal items of increase are Rs. 5,000 under Salaries and Rs. 11,000 under Working Expenses. The former is for the Tea Warehouse and the latter for the Tea Warehouse and the Petroleum Wharf.

8. It may be remarked that while after providing for interest and other charges a surplus revenue of large amount is obtained from the petroleum trade, the Tea Warehouse at Armenian Ghât appears to be worked at a considerable loss.

9. The expenditure at the Inland Vessels' Wharves [Part II] is estimated at Rs. 4,03,144, against the estimate of Rs. 4,35,994 for the previous year. The difference is due to a reduction in the amount allotted for new works and improvements.

10. Estimate No. 14 amounts to Rs. 31,000 and provides for the cost of two new works. The estimates for these works require the sanction of the Government.

11. In the Harbour Master's Department [Part IV] there is a reduction of Rs. 31,910 under the head "Renewal of Block." It is explained that a sum of Rs. 2,00,000 having been accumulated, the estimate for the current year provides only Rs. 10,000, which is the sum that will actually be spent on renewals.

12. Estimate No. 30 provides Rs. 30,673 for establishment for the survey of vessels, &c. The estimate should be revised in accordance with the remarks made above with reference to estimate No. 23.

13. In estimate No. 28 of the detailed estimates, a provision of Rs. 2,400 is made for "Subscription to institutions which contribute to the welfare of seamen." This expenditure is sanctioned under the provisions of section 36, sub-section (5), clause (e) of the Indian Ports Act. The question of whether the subscription to the District Charitable Society is a proper charge on the revenues of the Commissioners has been referred for the opinion of the law officers of the Government.

14. The estimated expenditure on the Tramway [Part VI] shows an increase of Rs. 8,021. For the reasons mentioned in commenting on the estimate of receipts from the Tramway, the approval to the estimate of expenditure should be regarded as provisional only.

15. The estimate of expenditure under Part VII, River Survey, Lights, and Channel Buoyage, amounts to Rs. 5,13,646, against Rs. 4,64,095 for the previous year. The difference is due to an increase of Rs. 50,000 in the amount credited to the depreciation account. It is stated that one of the light-vessels will not last for more than another year, and as there is at present only

Rs. 50,000 at credit of the depreciation account, there appears to be no likelihood of the charges on the Port Fund appertaining to this Part being reduced in the near future. Having in view the risks to which the property appertaining to this Part is liable, the Government is of opinion that the amount at credit of the depreciation account should be increased as soon as possible.

16. It is proposed to meet the expenditure under Part VII on river surveys, lights, and buoyage of the channels as follows:—

				Rs.
Surplus revenue from the Jetties	...	...	...	2,70,000
Ditto ditto Inland Vessels' Wharves	...	...	...	60,000
Ditto ditto Strand Bank Lands	...	...	...	70,000
Ditto ditto Harbour Master's Department	...	...	...	30,000
Ditto ditto Tramway	...	...	...	80,000
Total of surplus revenue transferred from other Parts				5,10,000

17. The charges in respect of river surveys, lights, and buoyage of the channels were formerly met from tonnage dues levied under the Indian Ports Act, and in the Resolution on the budget estimate of the Commissioners for 1889-90, it was remarked that on the completion of the Kidderpore Docks the present method of raising the income necessary to defray the charges falling upon the Port Trust might require modification. The whole subject is now engaging the attention of the Government, and the Commissioners are being asked to furnish an estimate (a) of the total annual charges that will fall on the Trust after the completion of the docks, and (b) of the income to be obtained in respect of the several services which will be rendered by the Trust to owners of vessels and goods.

18. The Commissioners may find it necessary, during the latter part of the current year, to take measures to strengthen their revenues so as to provide a reserve fund to meet contingencies which are likely to occur when the dock charges in respect of interest and working expenses fall on those revenues. This question will also be dealt with on receipt of the information which is being called for.

Establishment.

19. A revision of the Tea Warehouse Establishment is proposed. Provision is made for the pay of an Assistant Superintendent on Rs. 250 a month, and for certain changes in the subordinate establishment. It appears that the warehouse is worked at a loss; but as an Assistant Superintendent seems to be actually required, and as his appointment will probably result in increased revenue, the Lieutenant-Governor sanctions the revision proposed.

20. It is proposed to increase the pay of the Rent Collector from Rs. 90 to Rs. 120. This is a substantial increase, but as the total charge is not great, the Lieutenant-Governor sanctions it on condition that it is personal to the present incumbent.

21. It appears that a Chief Clerk on Rs. 100 a month has been entertained in the Harbour Master's Department, and that his salary has been met by an appropriation from the provision of Rs. 150, made in grant No. 7 of estimate No. 29, for an engineer, whose services have not been required. The Lieutenant-Governor has no objection to the employment of this clerk, but His Honour must at the same time observe that the action of the Commissioners in employing him without the sanction of the Government was not in accordance with the provisions of the law.

22. In Appendix A, under the head "Accounts Department" (item No. 5), a provision of Rs. 600 a month is made for the pay of the Chief Accountant, and of Rs. 50 a month for his personal allowance. There is at present an Acting Accountant, and it should be stated whether he draws the full pay of the appointment and the personal allowance.

23. In items 17 and 18 of the same appendix, under the head "Workshop Establishment," deductions are made for work done in connection with the Howrah Bridge, and then at the bottom of the page a deduction is again made from the net amount. An explanation of this procedure should be submitted for the information of the Lieutenant-Governor.

24. In Appendix J a provision of Rs. 800 a month is made for the pay of an Assistant Superintendent in the Traffic Department. If, as the Lieutenant-Governor understands, the services of an officer to fill this appointment have not actually been engaged, His Honour desires that no steps may be taken to engage him for the present. In view of the very heavy additional charges that are about to fall on the revenues of the Trust, the Lieutenant-Governor wishes the Commissioners to consider whether the work cannot be conducted without the assistance of this highly paid officer.

25. It is proposed in the draft estimates to meet one-fourth of the officer's pay from the revenues of the Howrah Bridge. The circumstances under which a portion of the Traffic Manager's pay was debited to the Howrah Bridge Fund should be reported for the information of the Government.

26. In item 1 of estimate No. 29 of the detailed estimates, a provision of Rs. 200 a month is made for the personal allowance of a Harbour Master. The officer who held the appointment of Harbour Master died recently, and the question will have to be decided as to whether his successor should get a personal allowance, and, if so, of what amount. The Commissioners should submit their proposals on this subject.

27. The revision of the establishments of the river surveying vessels Resolute, Cuckoo, and Tigris, the anchor-vessel Vulcan, and the spare light-vessel as shown in the schedule of establishments appended to the estimates, is sanctioned.

28. Subject to the remarks contained in the foregoing paragraphs, the Lieutenant-Governor, in pursuance of the powers vested in him by section 50 of Act V of 1870, approves the estimate of income and expenditure of the Commissioners for the year 1890-91. The Commissioners are requested to furnish the Government with copies of the estimates revised in accordance with the instructions contained in this Resolution, and to submit as soon as possible the information asked for therein.

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

J. M. McNEILE, Col., R.E.,

Secretary to the Government of Bengal.

The mean pressure, temperature, &c., are deduced from the traces of the Barograph and Thermograph. The hygrometric elements are obtained from self-registering thermometers. All the thermometers are verified, and the readings have been corrected to a standard constructed and verified at the Kew Observatory. They are exposed under a thatched shed open at the sides, and are suspended four feet above the ground.

The barometer readings are corrected approximately to those of the standard, Newman's No 86, formerly at the Surveyor-General's Office.

The hygrometric elements are obtained from Tables III, IV, and V of the official tables computed in the Meteorological Office, and based on Regnault's modifications of August's formula.

The directions and the movement of the wind are taken from the trace of a Beckley's anemograph

The mouth of the rain-gauge is one foot above the ground.

Explanation.—Summary.—The normal means of air pressure and temperature are the arithmetical average or means of the reading during the same period for the last year. The humidity of the atmosphere is expressed in percentage, saturated air being represented by 100. A clear sky is denoted by a sun or overcast sky by 10. The numbers are the numerical means or average of the rainfall in that district determined from the returns sent in by the subdivisional stations for the period in question during the past year. A rainy day is one on which at least hundredth of an inch fell.

for the week ending Friday, the 25th of April 1890.

CALCUTTA, the 29th April 1890,

SUMMARY OF THE METEOROLOGICAL AND RAINFALL OBSERVATIONS TAKEN IN BENGAL FOR THE WEEK ENDING FRIDAY, THE 25TH OF APRIL 1890.

THE unsettled weather, which was noticed in the report of last week, has continued with very little interruption during the present week. Large and frequent changes have occurred in pressure and temperature, the wind circulation has been almost always cyclonic round a centre well to the west of the province, and thunderstorms with rain, though not very general, have been of daily occurrence.

On Saturday the 19th, the first day of the present week, there was a low-pressure area overlying part of the North-West Provinces and part of Chutia Nagpur. During the previous day a rapid rise of pressure occurred, but the depression remained, and influenced the wind directions in all parts of Bengal, giving south or south-east winds in Lower Bengal and east or north-east winds in North Bengal and Behar. Pressure differed very little from the normal, generally less than a twentieth of an inch above, and very slightly below the normal in Chutia Nagpur. Temperature was largely below the normal in East and North Bengal, and slightly above in Orissa and Behar. On the 19th, rain was general in South-West and North Bengal, and scattered showers fell in the other districts. On the following day pressure continued to rise slowly except in Behar, where the rise was brisk. The low-pressure area was more diffused, wind circulation less regular, but still cyclonic, the centre somewhere in South Behar. Temperature changes on the 20th were not important, and rainfall more scattered. On the 21st a rapid fall of pressure was general, and continued with greater or less rapidity till the end of the week. The depression in the North-West Provinces again intensified, and caused easterly winds over almost the whole of Bengal. The change of pressure in Chutia Nagpur and South Behar was very little under a tenth of an inch, and it gradually diminished towards the north-east, defect being about a twentieth of an inch everywhere except in North Behar and North Bengal. Temperature continued to be largely below the normal over the eastern half of the province, and rain was again less general, numerous showers falling only in the Cooch Behar and Julpigoree districts, and in the Sunderbuns and Chittagong. On the 22nd the fall of pressure continued, briskly in Behar and slowly elsewhere, and defect had now increased to a tenth of an inch in Chutia Nagpur, South-West Bengal, and Orissa. The depression was gradually extending in a south-easterly direction, but as it had the form of a trough extending from the head of the Bay over Chutia Nagpur and the North-Western Provinces, the southerly motion had very little influence on the wind circulation, which remained unchanged till almost the end of the week. Temperature remained low in East and North Bengal till the 23rd, and during the 22nd and 23rd heavy general rain fell in these two districts; but during the last two days of the week, temperature rose very rapidly over the whole of Bengal, and the large defect which had been present for the greater part of the week in East and North Bengal disappeared. On these two days there was a large defect in pressure, everywhere more than a tenth of an inch and in some places very little under two-tenths. On Friday westerly winds were general over South Behar and Chutia Nagpur, and then the lowest pressure was over the head of the Bay near False Point and Saugor Island. Very little rain fell on Thursday and Friday, only a few scattered showers in East and North Bengal.

Pressure—As stated above, has changed rather largely, and was about two-tenths of an inch below the normal at the end of the week. The means for the week are all considerably below the normal, the largest defect being a tenth of an inch at Balasore, and the lowest about a twentieth of an inch over the greater part of North Behar.

Temperature—Was about normal in the western half of the province and four or five degrees below the normal in East and North Bengal till the last two days of the week, when a rapid rise following the almost general stoppage of rain, a large, though somewhat irregular, excess prevailed. The means for the week are above the normal except in East and North Bengal. Excess in Chutia Nagpur, South Behar, and Orissa is over  $1^{\circ}$ , defect in North Bengal  $3.4^{\circ}$ , and in East Bengal  $1.9^{\circ}$ .

The actual temperatures during the week, the range from day to night, and their variations from the normals are seen in the following table; where the average maximum, minimum and mean temperatures at nine typical stations in different districts in the province are given together with their normal values:—

Rainfall.—General, and in some cases heavy, rain fell in the northern half of North Bengal on every day except the last; in South-West Bengal on Saturday and Sunday, and in East Bengal on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday; elsewhere scattered showers have been falling except in part of South Behar and Chutia Nagpur. In the former a few showers fell on the 19th and 20th in Monghyr, South Bhagulpore, and the Sonthal Pergunnahs, and in the latter only three showers are reported from Manbhoom. The mean rainfall for the week is above the normal in South-West, East and North Bengal and South Behar. The excess fall in East Bengal is 1·6 inches, in North and South-West Bengal 0·3 inch, and the defect in Orissa is 0·3 inch.

2. Upon receipt of an application in the prescribed form duly filled in, the Surveyor will fix the date and hour at which the survey shall be commenced, and will forward to the applicant information of the date and hour so fixed, together with a list of the requisite preparations for the survey of the steam-ship. 9. If the Surveyor is unavoidably prevented from being present at the time fixed, the earliest possible information shall be sent to the applicant, and some other time, convenient to the applicant and to the Surveyor, shall be fixed for the survey.

10. With a view to obviate inconvenience and delay, owners and masters whose vessels are in dock or undergoing repairs should communicate at once with the Surveyors, if their vessels have afterwards to be surveyed.
